

1. Home page of Library Management System.

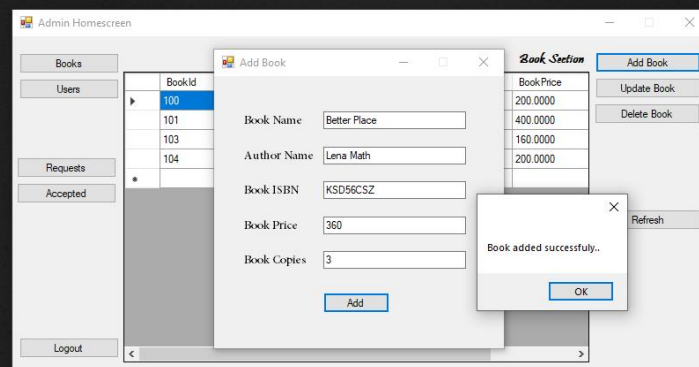

2. Login as a Admin.

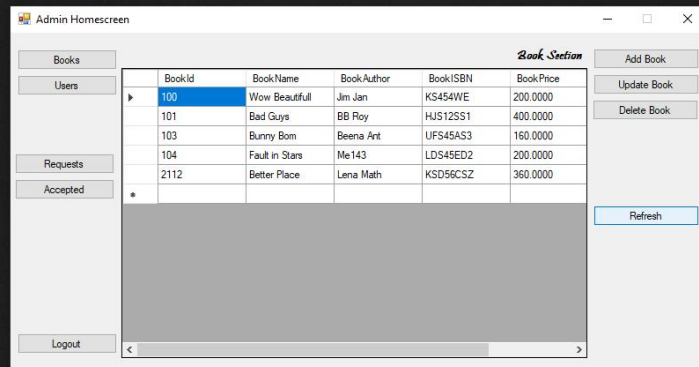

3. Admin homepage, by default it will show Admin books section

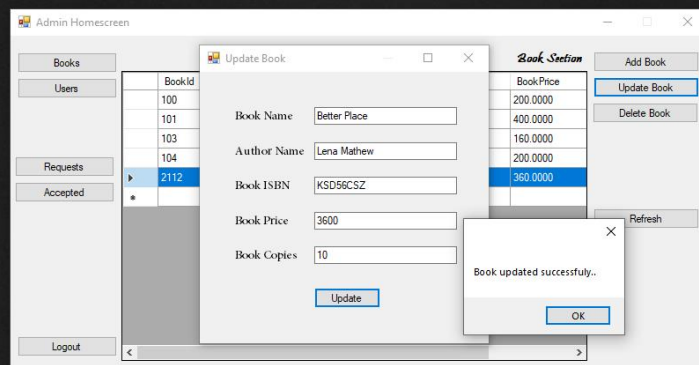

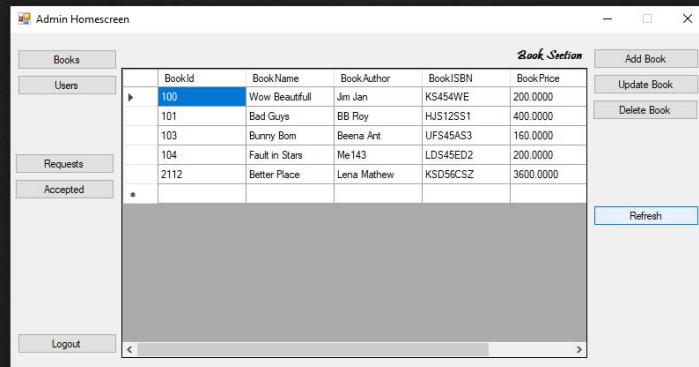

4. Adding a new book from the Admin books section.

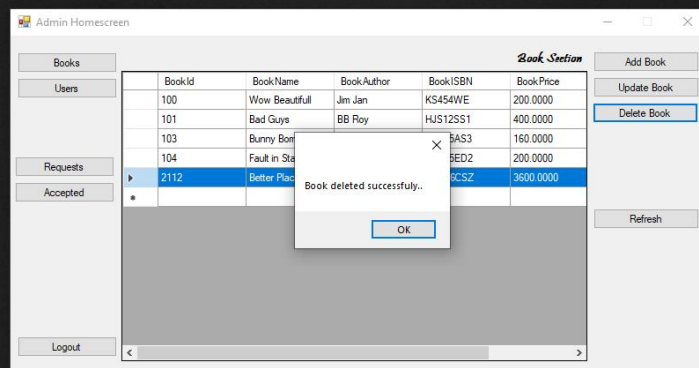

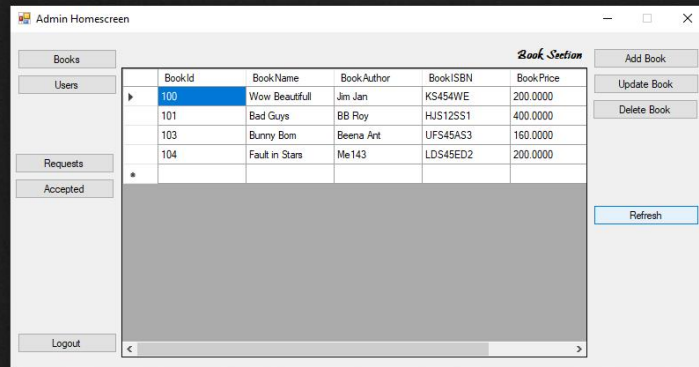

5. Updating that book from the Admin books section.

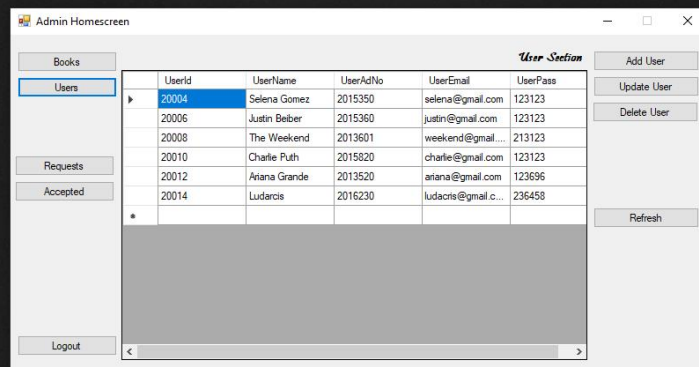

6. Deleting that book from the Admin books section.

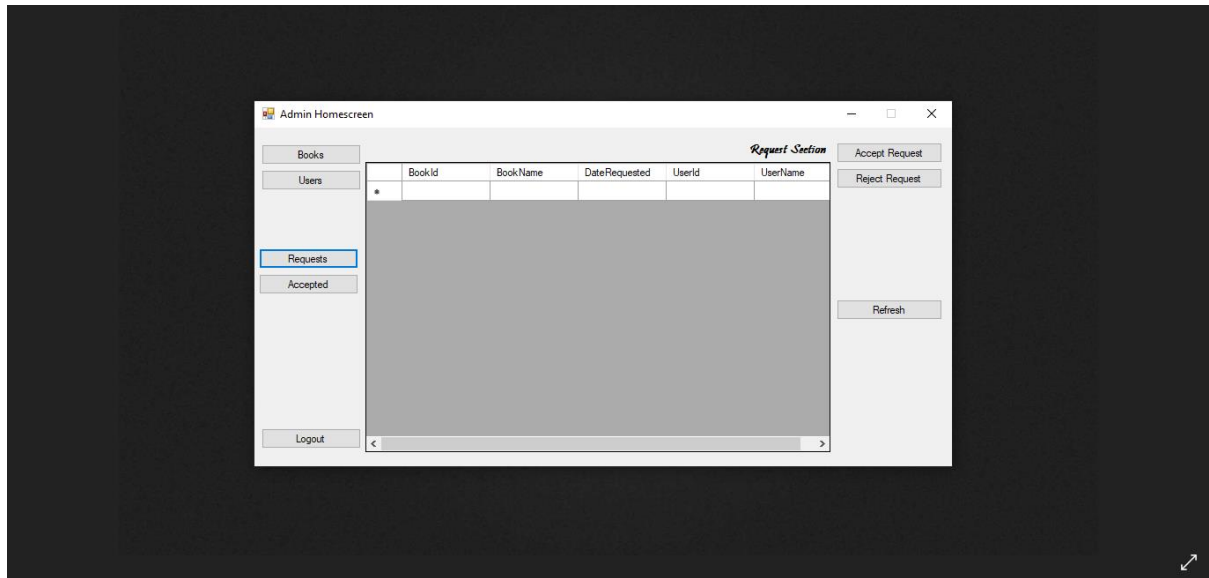

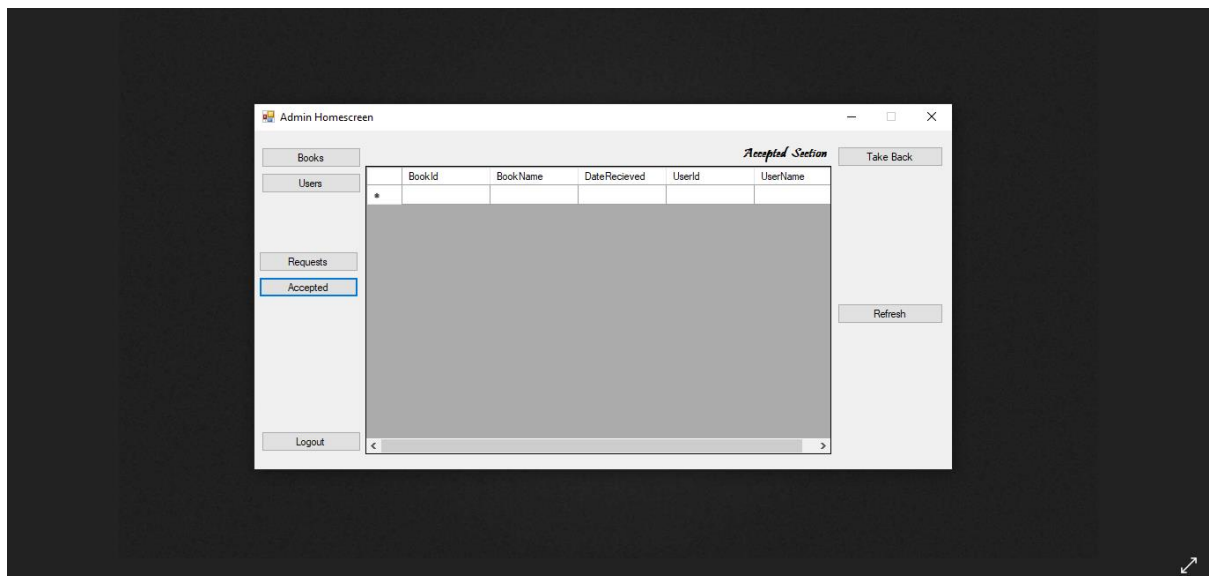

7. Admin users section, here admin can add, update and delete a user same as like book.

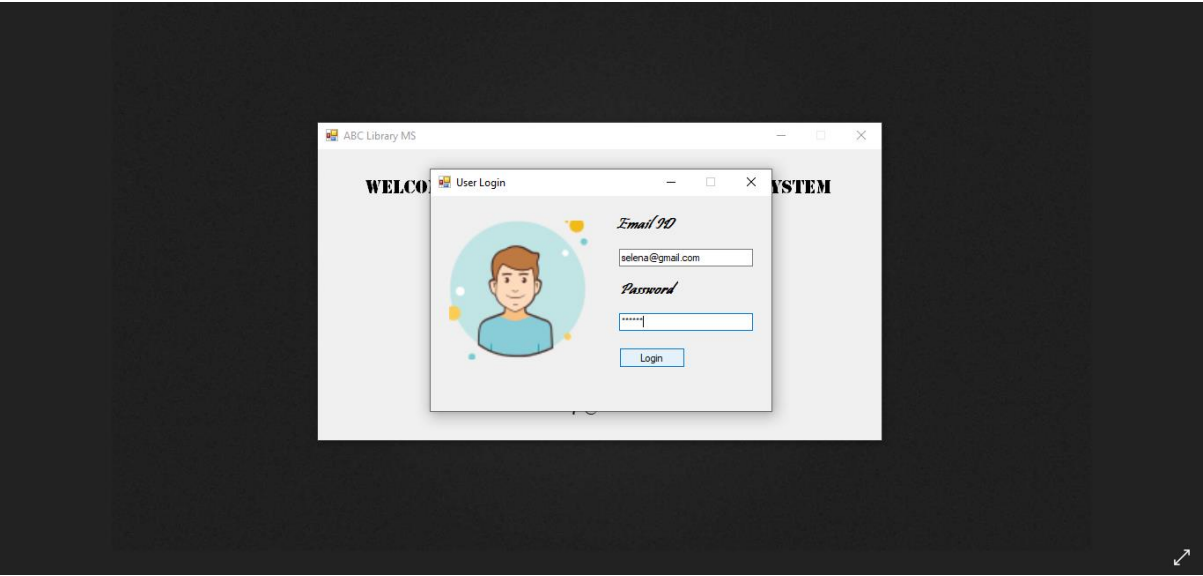

8. Admin requests section, as there are no requests from users so this table is empty. Here admin can accept and reject the request.

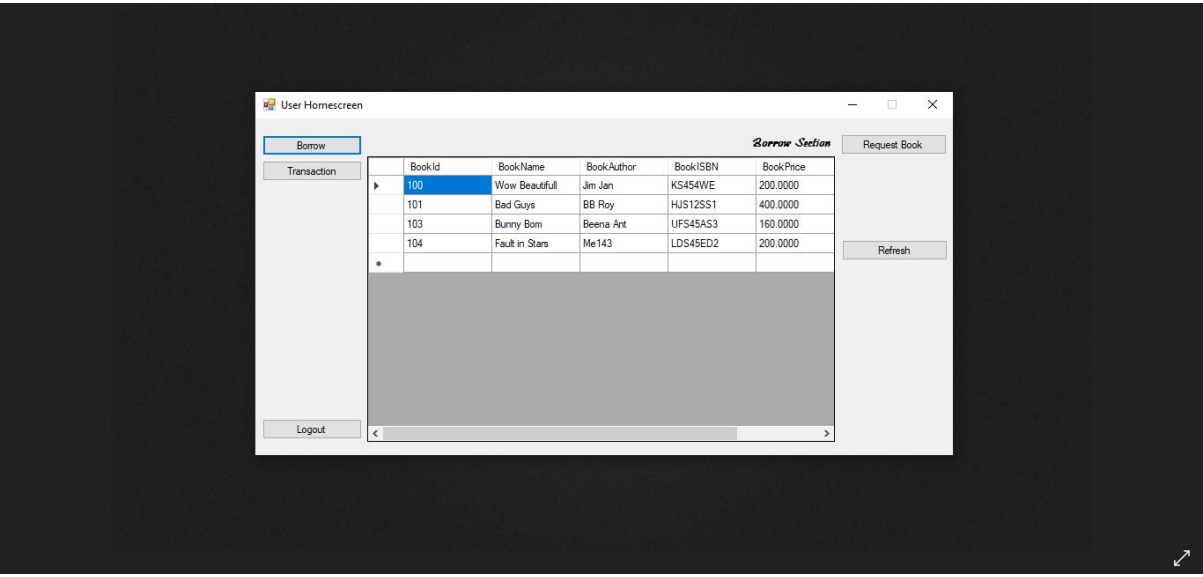

9. Admin accepted section, as there are no requests accepted by admin so this table is empty. Here admin can take back the accepted books from users.

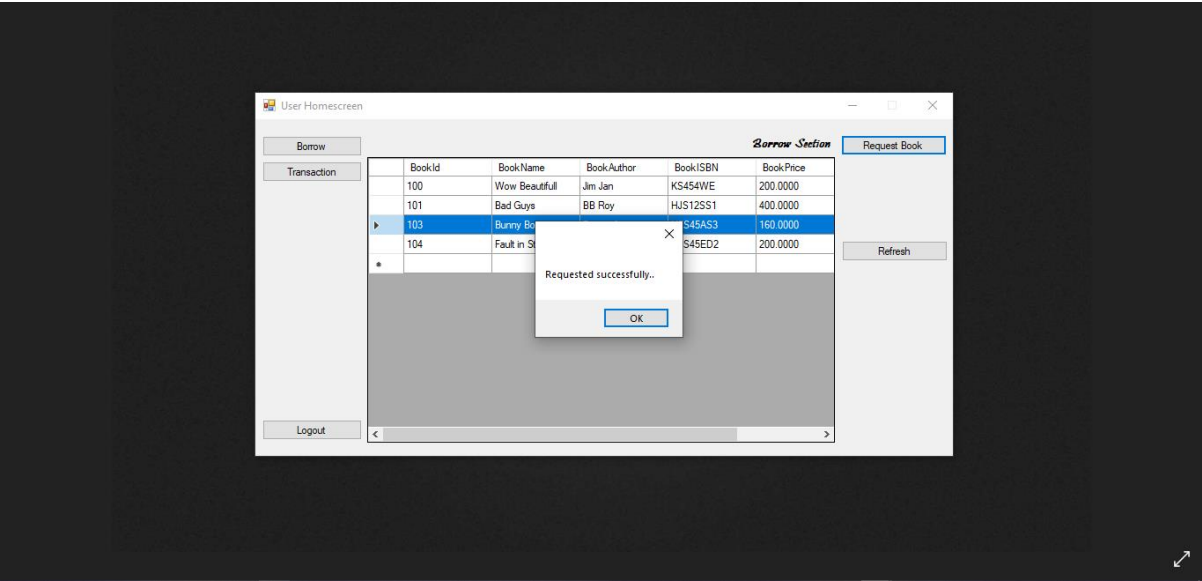

10. After logout from Admin section we can login as a User.

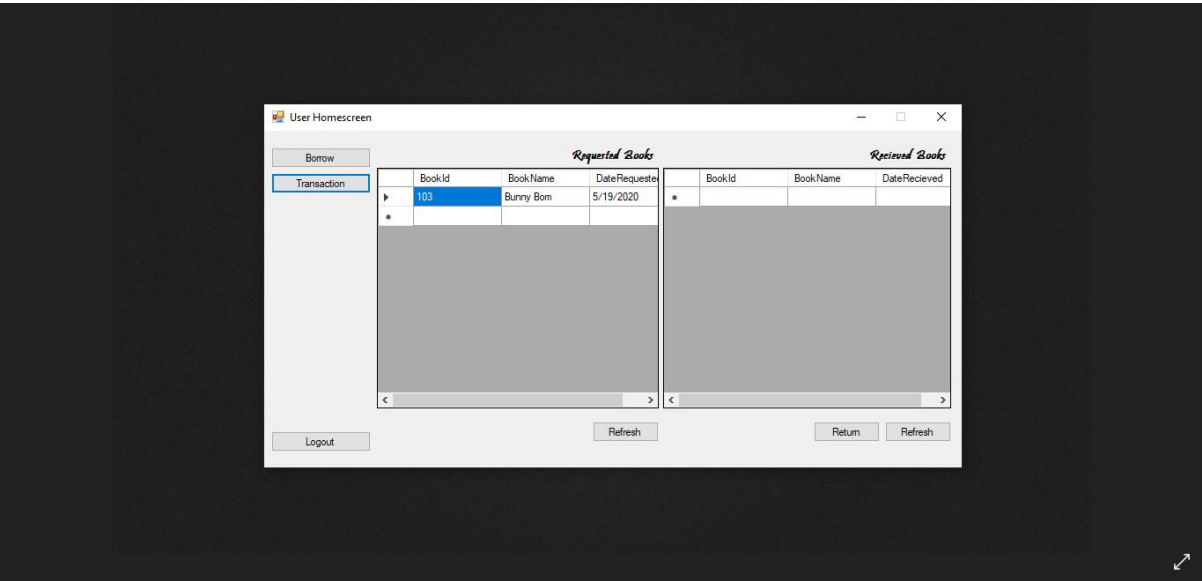

11. User homepage, by default it will show User borrow section.

12. Requesting for a book from the User borrow section.

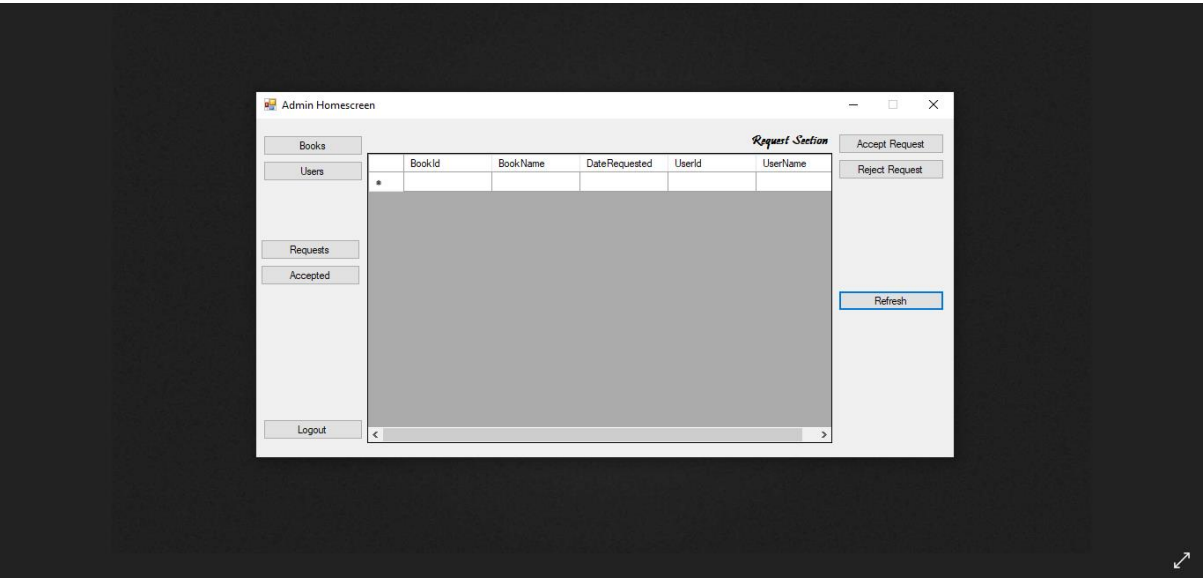

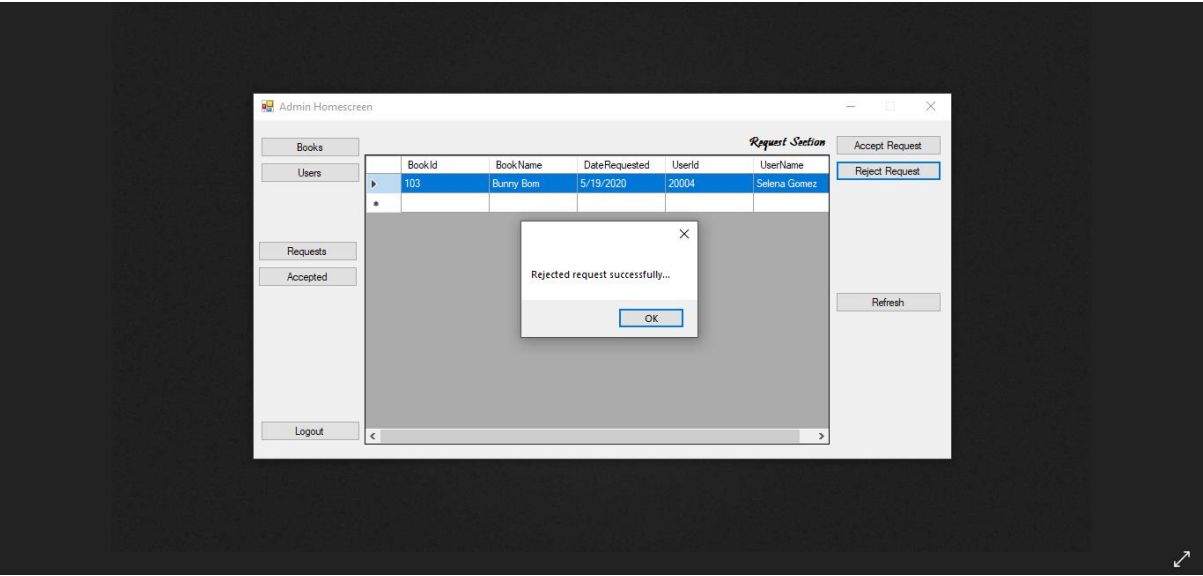

13. User transaction section, here user can view the list of requested and received books. As there is no request accepted by admin so received books table is empty.

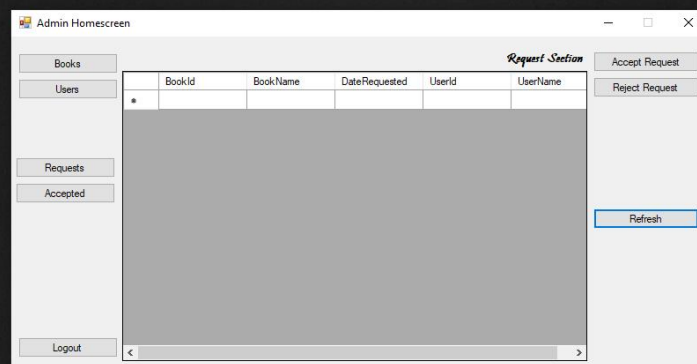

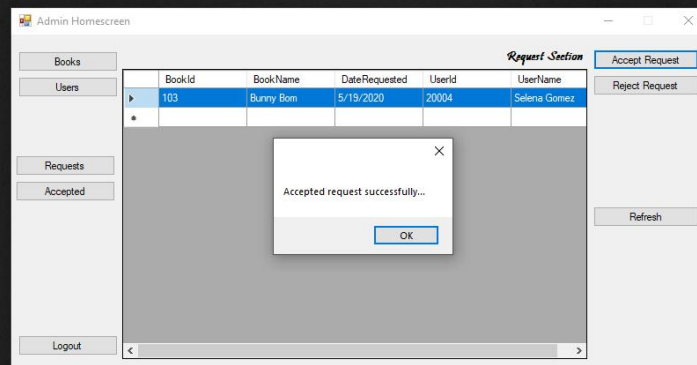

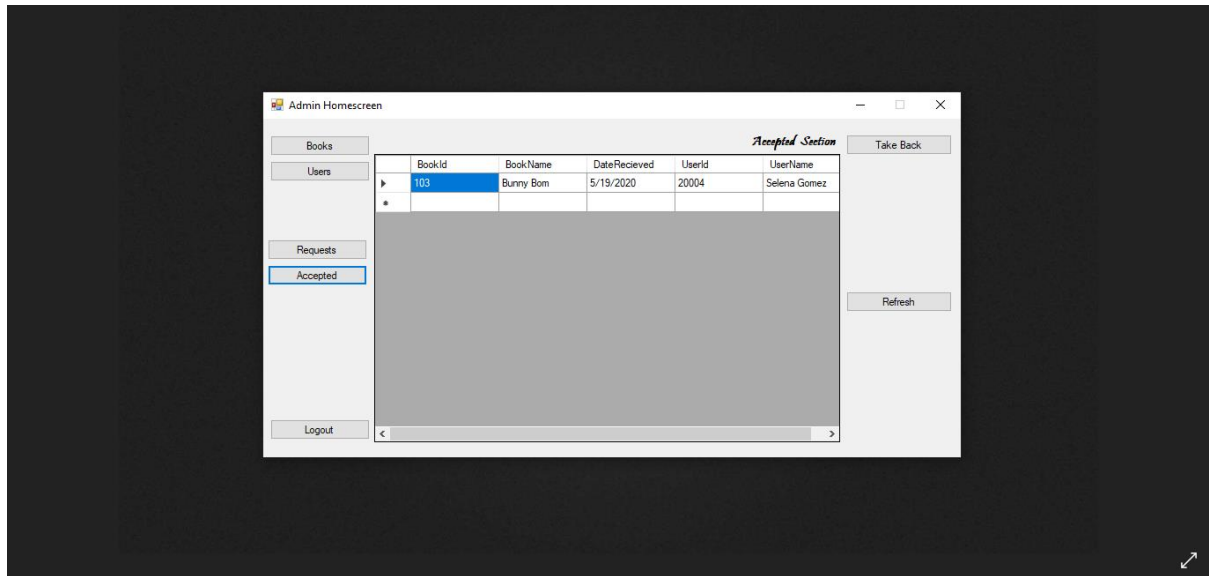

14. Admin rejecting the book request from the Admin request section.

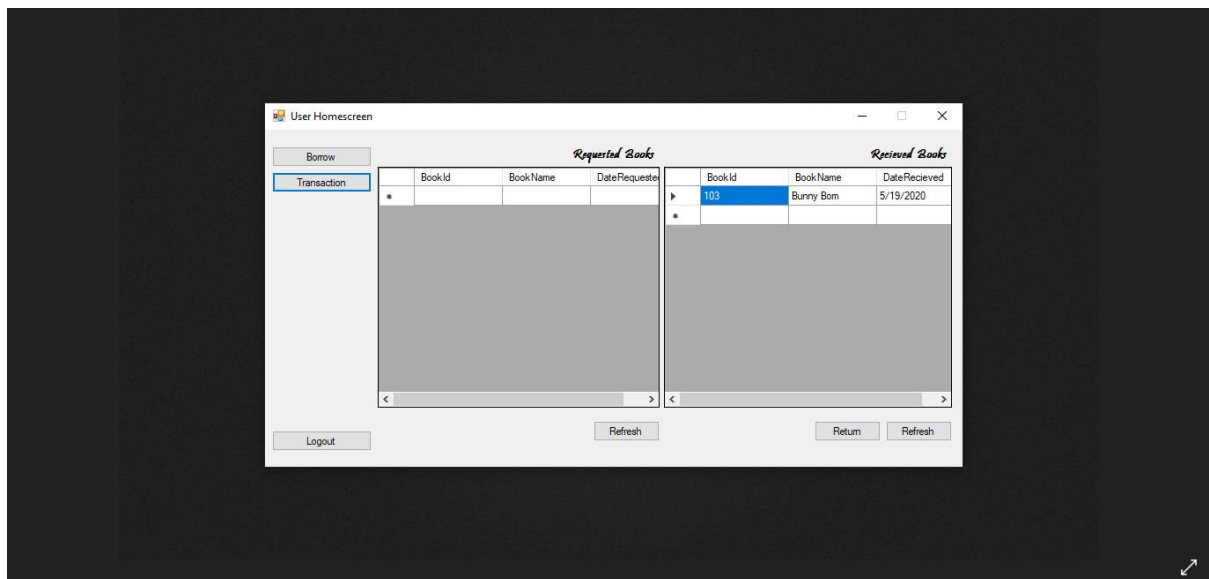

15. Admin accepting the book request from the Admin request section.

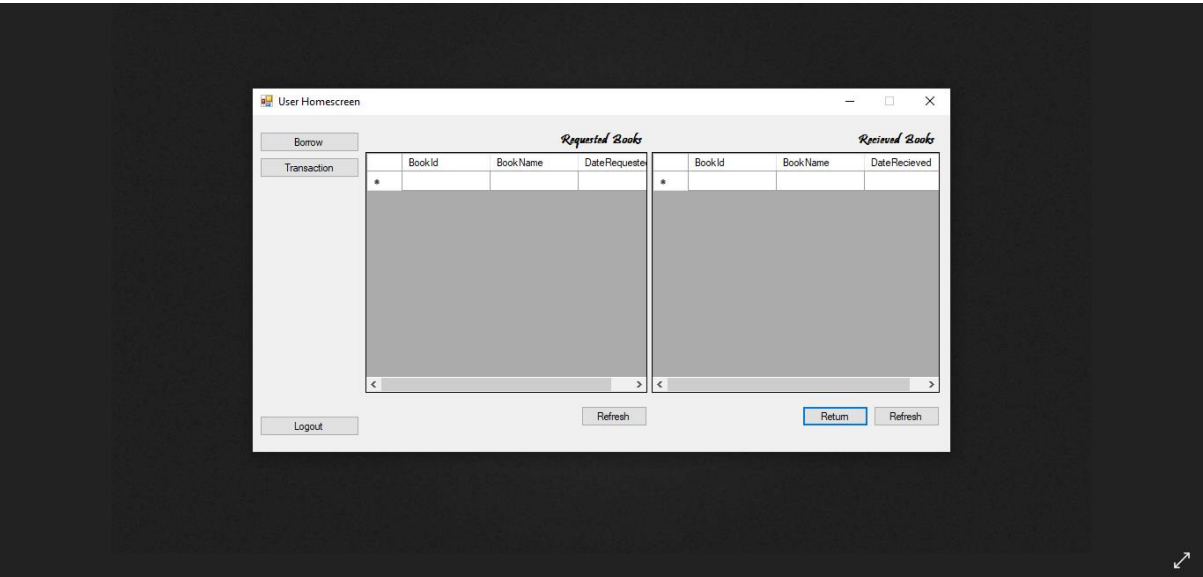

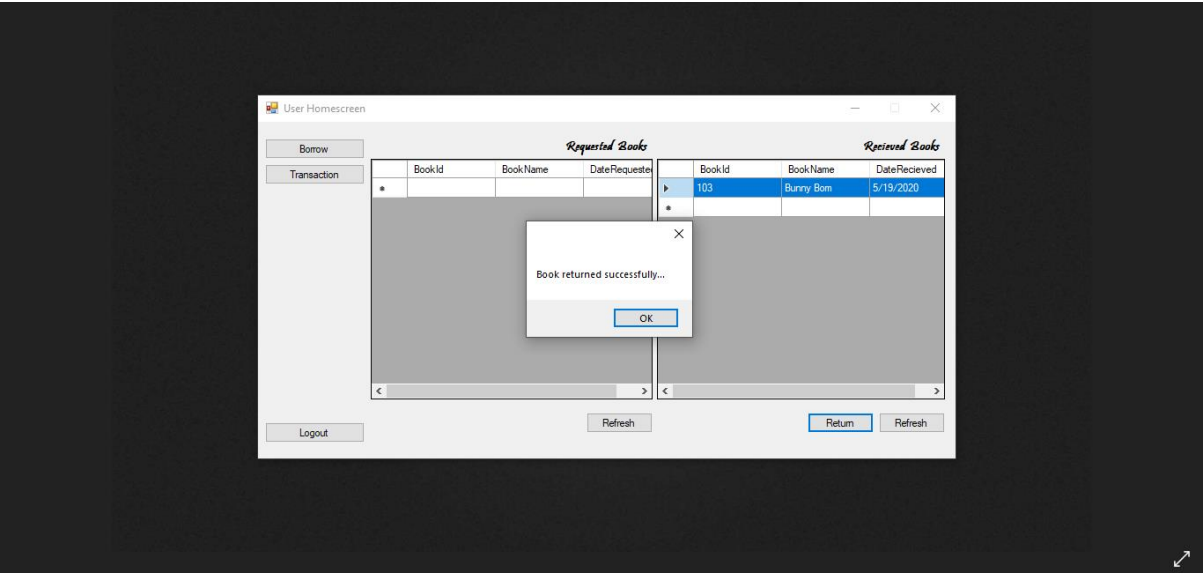

16. Admin accepted section, If the admin accepts the book request from the Admin request section, it will be shown as accepted books in this section.

17. If the admin permitted the book request, then User can view book in the User transaction section.

18. Return the received books from User transaction section.

19. Admin taking back the book from user.

